Report by: Scoutbridge Scouting department (Nemanja Popovic)

William Morin is a prolific young forward with elite attacking instincts and natural goal-scoring ability. Having scored over 60 goals in the 2024/2025 season, he has proven himself as a clinical finisher with the mentality and consistency of a much older player. Standing at 182 cm, Morin combines speed, height, and flair – a rare profile that makes him a unique and unpredictable attacking threat. Morin's greatest strengths lie in his explosiveness, timing, and finishing ability.

He reads the game exceptionally well, spotting defenders' weak sides and timing his runs with precision. When in front of goal, he remains calm and composed, consistently converting chances with confidence and variety. His technical skill, combined with his long stride and balance, allows him to glide past defenders and create opportunities both for himself and his teammates. He plays with flair and a touch of arrogance, in the positive sense – showing creativity and fearlessness in possession.

Psychologically, he is unbothered and mentally strong; mistakes do not faze him, and he quickly resets, maintaining confidence and focus throughout the match. This resilient mindset is one of his standout traits and key to his consistent performances. Tactically, Morin fits naturally as the lone striker in a 4-3-3, where he can use his pace and intelligent movement to stretch defences. He can also operate effectively in a 4-4-2, acting as a deeper forward or false nine, linking play and supporting a quicker partner.

To reach the next level, he will benefit from adding muscle mass and physical strength to complement his technical and mental attributes. With continued development and the right environment, Morin possesses the potential to become a professional player in the Swedish top flight within the next few years. ScoutBridge assessment: William Morin is an elite young forward – fast, confident, and clinical, with the mentality and technical qualities to rise through the professional ranks.
