Report by: ScoutBridge Scouting Department

Erik Osuna is a dynamic and explosive attacking player with exceptional pace and balance. Currently representing IK Oddevold P19, and previously part of Utsiktens BK Academy in the P17 Allsvenskan, Osuna has shown consistent development and the qualities of a modern, high-intensity forward.

With a low center of gravity, Osuna is extremely difficult to dispossess when driving with the ball. His acceleration and strength in duels allow him to create separation from defenders and penetrate defensive lines effectively. In front of goal, he is composed and clinical – capable of shifting quickly from aggressive, direct actions to calm, precise finishing once inside the box.

His combination of speed, control, and finishing makes him well-suited for all attacking roles in a 4-3-3 system, whether operating as a winger or central forward. He thrives in open spaces and transition phases, where his timing and directness become decisive.

While his attacking output and physical tools stand out, further development in the defensive phase and pressing structure will elevate his all-round contribution.

Osuna's potential is exceptional – with his athleticism, mentality, and natural attacking instinct, he projects as one of the most promising offensive prospects in his age group and a player capable of reaching a high professional level with continued development
